HIGHLIGHTS OF TRAINER'S PROFILE

Vimala is an ICF certified PCC Executive and Business Coach and Facilitator with over 30 years' experience which began in UK's corporate National Health Service and now continues to work in SE Asia. She helps leaders and executives to gain new perspectives and tools to lead their people and organizations. Vimala's key role in the NHS was developing a strategic direction, bringing clarity, empowering decision makers through consultative dialogue. This is where she gained valuable experience in whole system change management in organizations.

Currently, Vimala consult, coach and train leaders within a whole system approach and work with individuals and teams as their true sparring partner/thought partner, where they find the solutions to be their very own Game Changer. She helps leaders, executives and teams to get clear on what is important, leverage on individual and team strengths, bring clarity, set goals, and develop plans to execute with purpose, with mastery and to add value to impact the bottom-line.

Vimala is a certified C-IQ Facilitator in Conversational Intelligence. Through this work, she is able to deliver training on Trust Building, Team Building and Improve Organizational Communication Capabilities.
